

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Proclamation

Whereas, Lois Wooten has lived in Del City since the 1950's. During her entire residence here, Lois has been a good citizen, a good neighbor, and an inspiration to many; and

Whereas, Lois has been a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She has one daughter, two grandchildren, and two great-grandsons; and

Whereas, Lois and her late husband Ernest were charter members of the First Southern Baptist Church, and Lois has been a member of Sooner Baptist Church for several years; and

Whereas, Ernest was a firefighter at Tinker Air Force Base and a volunteer firefighter for Del City; and

Whereas, Lois worked as a cafeteria manager at Del City High School and Kerr Junior High for many years; and

Whereas, Lois continues to amaze her family with her ability to keep up with everyone and everything. She got her first computer when she was 90, and she now has an iPhone 5 on which she does her own texting, and an iPad; and

Whereas, although she no longer drives, Lois is in good health and lives independently; she does her own cooking, laundry and housekeeping; and

Whereas, Lois will reach her 100th birthday on May 5, 2014, and she attributes her longevity to a blessed Christian life, her love of the Lord, and her strong faith in Him.

Now, therefore, I, Brian E. Linley, Mayor of the City of Del City, do hereby let it be known that Del City congratulates Lois Wooten on her 100th birthday, and wishes her many more years of good health and happiness.

Further, I hereby proclaim May 5, 2014 to be within the City of Del City.

Lois Wooten Day

Witness my hand as Mayor of Del City, affixed in the City of Del City this 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and fourteen.

Brian E. Linley
.....
Brian E. Linley, Mayor
City of Del City, Oklahoma